Church Leadership

Spring 2018

Tuesday Evenings
6:30 – 9:15

January 30
through May 8

Evangelical Seminary

Myerstown, Pennsylvania

In cooperation with Evangelical Seminary's School of Lifelong Learning, Institute for Church Leadership offers a series of courses in Bible, theology, prayer, evangelism, church history, missions, counseling and more. Anyone can benefit from these opportunities for spiritual enrichment and leadership development. Evangelical is pleased to offer these classes as a resource for building the Kingdom of God.

Old Testament Survey

Core course for the Institute for Church Leadership

January 30 – March 13 • 6:30 – 9:15 p.m.
Instructor: Tim Valentino

In this course the student surveys Old Testament literature, history, geography, culture, theology, and structure to understand and communicate what the Old Testament reveals about God. Additional issues addressed include: Who are the important people and nations? What are the significant events, and where do they happen? How is the Old Testament put together? How does the Old Testament apply to us today? What resources are available to understand, teach, and preach the Old Testament?

Tim Valentino is an Instructor of Biblical Studies and Practical Theology at Evangelical Seminary, where he also serves as the Director of Community Relations. Additionally, he serves as the Pastor of Connectional Ministry at Faith Evangelical Congregational Church in Temple, PA. He received his MDiv from Evangelical Seminary and his DMin from Southern Seminary in Louisville, KY. Tim is married to Sonya, and they have two adult children. He is also a conference speaker, swimmer, softball player, and an incurable Philadelphia Phillies fan.

New Testament Survey

Core course for the Institute for Church Leadership

March 27 – May 8 • 6:30 – 9:15 p.m.
Instructor: Lucas Ndaro

This course will guide the student to explore the unifying message of the New Testament books, the central message of each book, and the underlying concerns of each New Testament author. Attention will also be given to the background, setting, and major themes of the New Testament as a whole. The course will serve as a general introduction to this part of Scripture, and provide a list of suggested resources for further study.

Lucas Ndaro currently serves as the Director of Adult Discipleship at Cornwall United Methodist Church. Prior to this assignment he served at Nassa Theological College and the Family Life Counseling Center in Mwanza, Tanzania. He received his MDiv and MAR from Evangelical Seminary, and his ThM from Westminster Seminary. Lucas and his wife, Limi, live in Cornwall, PA, and they have four children.
